

Dear Father

Tuesday 5th

I'm sending you this letter to tell you how I am and to ask how you are. Mother has sent me away to stay with some other family, far from London I didn't want to go but she made me, she said that it was to keep me safe. The house is very nice and the family seem so too, they have pets here: a dog named Bob and a cat called Cass. I miss you and mother a lot and after sending this letter to you I shall write one to mother. The train ride wasn't too bad but I was very scared because I didn't know anyone or where I was going, mother looked very sad when the train left the station. How are you? Is it fun being able to fly a plane? Are you scared? Do you miss me? I have a lot of things to ask and tell you but I'll have to wait until you come home because I don't have that much paper. Did you know that they put a label around my neck so that I wouldn't get lost or picked up by the wrong family? It had my name, birthday and age on it but didn't need it because I'm a big boy so I answered all of their questions. As I'm running out of paper and I still have to write to mother to tell her that I'm well, I will end this letter here. I can't wait to read your letter when it gets here and I will write to you again soon.

Love John
